

Unit 17-A [23 ↗ || 231] soup 'r salad?—
[23 ↗] "Super Salad"?

Story

Listen to the story as your teacher reads it, or on tape, until you understand the main ideas.

Paul and Lisa were excited to try out the new "Super Steak" restaurant in town. On their way into the steakhouse, they saw a very large sign that read, "Try our New Super Salad, today!" They were curious as to what a "Super Salad" was, so they asked their server when they were ordering their meal. The server explained that the Super Salad was (1) a gallon-size bowl of green salad that was big enough to feed a whole family, yet it was offered at a low price.

Deciding that the Super Salad was too big for them, Paul and Lisa ordered steaks. The server then explained that (2) soup 'r salad was included in their meal. The soup of the day was French onion, and the salad was tossed green salad. She then asked them if they would like (2) the soup 'r salad. Paul responded, "I'll have the salad, please, but not the Super Salad. It's way too large for even the two of us."

Contrasting Sentences

Listening: Write the appropriate words in each blank. Later, as you hear each sentence, mark the box, point to the picture, make a gesture, and/or say the rejoinder. Speaking: Choose and say each sentence so that your listener(s) can respond correctly.

- Would you like the _____? (Salad, please.)
- Would you like the _____? (No, thanks! It's way too large.)

Explanations and diagrams for this unit's target sounds are on pages 373-74 in Section 10.
